

.denken.
.gestalten
.wachsen

msgGillardon: We are people supporting renowned customers with our profound business expertise, deep technical competency and extraordinary passion. People developing individual and holistic solutions for our customers with engagement and Know-How. People enjoying challenging consultancy and IT projects. We would be very happy if you join us and become part of our team.

msg is an independent Group with more than 8.000 employees worldwide. Our excellent reputation originates from our holistic service portfolio of creative strategic consultancy and intelligent sustainable value creating IT solutions for numerous diversified industry sectors.

Middleware Developer/Architect Mulesoft (m/f/d)

Location: Germany / remote

What we offer

- Mulesoft development in very exciting and challenging projects
- Close partnership with interesting customers
- Direct cooperation with Mulesoft
- Engaged and dynamic team with startup mentality
- Support in your journey towards becoming an experienced Mulesoft Architect

What we expect

- Experience with the Mulesoft integration in the Salesforce context
- 'Mulesoft Certified Developer - Level 1' certification
- English- or German fluent speaking
- Willingness to travel

The msg experience

Are you looking for diversity instead of daily routine? Team spirit instead of static hierarchies? If your answer is yes you found your match with us. We offer you exciting and meaningful projects, appealing career options and international perspectives. Furthermore, you benefit from a very flexible working model, generous social benefits and a professional, cooperative working atmosphere within a highly motivated team.

How to approach us

You got curious about us? Then please provide us via our application assistant with your online application including your salary expectations and the application ID: msg-50358113-001.

You can find out more about what defines msg as an employer and how we are dealing with the corona pandemic on the msg career page.

<https://karriere.msg.group>